Where will you be sitting?

Where will you be sitting?

After thirty years of serving the disabled community of Orange County and beyond with therapeutic equestrian programs, it's time to do some good celebrating.

Celebrate – the many accomplishments of our clients and their families.

Acknowledge – thirty years of support from the community and those of you who've been here for so many years as a friend, volunteer and partner.

Feast – on the good will of a spectacular event and the giving of our wonderful guests, and feast at the table our dear friend and longest tenured corporate partner, Claim Jumper Restaurants, lays out for your enjoyment.

This is an event for our entire family and that means you and your family. If you haven't seen the Center in the last two years, please come and be prepared to celebrate the hard work of donors, families, staff and clients in our new equestrian development. At the 2007 BBQ, over $2.4 million was raised for the new Klein Family Education & Therapy Building. This year – we will all celebrate the official groundbreaking of this wonderful resource for people with special needs and their families.

If you are a past or current rider at the Center, please come back for the family reunion of all our clients.

We are so grateful for the past thirty years, and looking to the future of the next thirty, and we can't wait to celebrate this time with you.

Thirty Years of BBQ and Shea Center

Claim Jumper founder "Nick" Nickoloff told Larry Bill some 25 years ago to "take some chicken down to the Center for their BBQ." Claim Jumper is now in seven states with 44 restaurants and through their leadership, this is the premier community event for families in Orange County.
